Jason Herring

Wealth Transfer Specialist

Jason's career started as a wholesaler for the Hartford working with large financial firms to help educate their clients on asset protection, estate planning and wealth transfer. After the Hartford merger with Prudential Jason continued in the same role at Prudential. Jason conducted well over 500 client meetings and was honored to earn Prudential's Pinnacle award in both 2014 and 2015. The Pinnacle award recognized the top 15 sales reps in the country.

"I am blessed to have worked with many great financial advisors over the years. As my career continued to grow, so did my territory and travel. I started to realize how much family time I was missing and wanted to find a way for a better work – life balance. I also wanted to be more independent and have the ability to offer clients more than one company for their life insurance needs. That lead me to join the team at American Brokerage Company. We are a full-service independent life brokerage that works with insurance companies, not for them. We specialize in providing income and asset protection products in an unbiased manner.

I live in Murfreesboro, TN with my beautiful wife Lori and our three girls: Morgan, Mollie and Mia. In my very rare free time I enjoy playing golf, watching Alabama football and hanging out at the ballpark watching Mollie's travel softball team. I am a graduate of Lipscomb University, with a degree in Speech Communication."
